

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL EPISCOPAL CHURCH

WELCOME. In the name of Christ, we offer you welcome to this church. May those who sorrow, find comfort; the weary, rest; the troubled, peace; the stranger, friends; the unhappy, joy; and to all, the sense of God's presence in this Holy Place. If you are new to this parish community, please give your name and phone number to the Rector or sign our guest register on the stand in the back of the Church. As our honored guest, we want to welcome you. Book of Common Prayer and the larger blue book is the Hymnal.

THE SERVICE. There are two main books used for our service; the smaller red book is the Book of Common Prayer and the larger blue book is the Hymnal. There is also a Gray Hymnal. They can be found in the bookrack on the back of the pew in front of you. A Bible can be found at the ends of the pew. The page / hymn numbers in the service bulletin help you find your place in these service books. We invite you to participate fully in our worship.

RECEIVING COMMUNION. Holy Communion in the Episcopal Church is open to all who are comfortable participating in the Communion of the Lords' Table. To receive communion, please form two lines in the center aisle and approach the front of the Celebration Altar. Please stand with one hand cupped on top of the other to receive the consecrated bread from the Celebrant. Then step to the side to the Eucharistic Minister and take the chalice and drink from it; or you may intinct the bread by dipping it in the consecrated wine. If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, please come forward for a blessing (fold your arms across your chest to indicate that you do not wish to receive Holy Communion). Return to your pew by way of the side aisles.

Opening Hymn "Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken"

Hymn 522

Call to Worship

Presider: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

All: And blessed be God's Kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Presider: To know Jesus is to know Jesus' way. And to know Jesus' way is to know the way of Jesus' followers.

All: But like the blind man Jesus healed in stages, we, Jesus' followers, are always and only in the process of coming to see Jesus ever more clearly, to know Jesus ever more truly, to see Jesus' way extending before us, coming to know what Jesus' way means to us.

Presider: The way of the world and the way of Jesus diverge before, and we constantly face the choice.

All: To know Jesus way is to know the Way.

Prayers of the People

Prayer Leader: Gracious God, you have saved us through your Son Jesus Christ and you call us to take up our cross and follow him: Incline your ear to us as we call upon you.

Prayer Leader: Holy God, you have promised life to your Church as we lose our lives for Jesus' sake and for the sake of the Gospel: Inspire our witness to Jesus, especially in Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Audrey, our Bishop; James and Barbara, the Bishops of our Lutheran brothers and sisters; Ronald, the Bishop of our Roman Catholic brothers and sisters; clergy, especially Patrick, our Rector; Gina, Ingrid, Sud, Tim, Mark, Peter, Beth, John, Ellie, and Nancy, the clergy of the Rim Parishes; and all our brothers and sisters of the Rim Parishes, that we may share in His work of resurrection. Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: Wise and Wonderful God, keep our leaders, especially Donald, our President; the Congress and the Courts; Thomas our Governor; the Legislature of our Commonwealth; our Borough Council; and Leo our Mayor, and all in authority from presumptuous sins and guide them, that they may set their minds upon divine things and not upon human things. Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: Ever-present God, comfort all who undergo great suffering throughout the world and let your saving hand raise them to new life. Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: Benevolent God, be near to us and sustain us in conflict and in prosperity, that the Parish Family of Saint Paul may be whole and sound, and innocent of great offense. Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: The heaven declare your glory, O God, and the firmament shows your handiwork. Hear our prayers for those for whom we intercede, especially....

(read the names of the sick listed on the prayer list. Also read the names [if any] listed under “for the special needs of,” read the names [if any] listed under the heading of “for healthy pregnancy and safe delivery”)

(then say: “the congregation is invited to add others names aloud or in silence”),

(then continue)

We thank you for teachers and all who speak your Good News to the world. Hear our gratefulness for our many blessings, especially for...

(mention any thanksgivings [if any] listed under the heading of “thanksgivings”)

(then say: “the congregation is invited to add other blessings aloud or in silence”)

(then continue)

In Christ you have suffered, died, and risen. May Jesus, the Messiah, the Anointed One of God, bring humanity into eternal life. Hear our prayers for those who have died, especially...

(read the names of the departed listed on the prayer list)

(then say: “the congregation is invited to add others names aloud or in silence”)

(then continue)

Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be
acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: O Gracious God, you have given up your very self to save the world. That we may be empowered to give up ourselves for one another. Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: You have made your people equal and free in the Baptism of your Son. That this Parish Family of Saint Paul may live joyfully in this new way. Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: You show us all the poor and the needy, all the homeless and the hungry. That we may lighten their load by taking it upon ourselves to work to end poverty, homelessness, and hunger in our community. Let the words of our mouths and
the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight:

All: O God, our strength and our redeemer.

Prayer Leader: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

(a brief pause for the private confession of our sins)

Prayer of Confession and Assurance

Our God, we confess this day, prompted by our scripture – prompted by its honesty in portraying all the vulnerability of one of Jesus’ 12 disciples.
We confess to confessing you and denying you at the same time.

We confess you in our words here – deny you with other words there.

We confess you with these actions, deny you with those actions.

We pray in all honesty, less for a perfect consistency in word and action than for your help in striving for a perfect commitment to always seek to be following you.

This we pray in the name of the one who knows exactly what we mean. Amen.

A man who does a daily blog named Seth Godin recently wrote the following and I have to think this describes where Saint Paul is right now:

There are two polar opposites: Staying Still and Breaking. It's easy to visualize each end of the axis, whatever the activity. In between is Stretching.

Stretching is growth. Extending our reach. Becoming more resilient, limber and powerful. Stretching hurts a bit, and maybe leaves us just a little bit sore.

But then, tomorrow, we can stretch further than we could yesterday. Because stretching compounds. If you're afraid of breaking, the answer is not to sit still but to dedicate yourself to stretching.

October 8 THE RISING TIDE OF LITERACY: CREATING A SCHOOL & COMMUNITY COALITION

The data confirms that the Columbia Borough School District is facing a literacy (reading & writing) and numeracy crisis. The District is unique in that it shares the same 2.3 square mile boundary as the Borough. In 2017-18, the District embraced a design-thinking approach to offer human-centered solutions to solve this literacy/numeracy epidemic. In an effort to raise the literacy/numeracy levels within the walls of the three schools, a coalition of school and community program leaders was organized to design literacy/numeracy interventions that truly build parent capacity in the surrounding community. The District also attempted to do more with less by leveraging augmented reality to enhance instruction. This is one District's approach to offer Title I-funded adult literacy & numeracy high school equivalency courses for District parents. Parents are our students' first and greatest teachers.

FINANCE AND INVESTMENT

Once-A-Day Lottery: Winners will be notified by the Parish Administrator.

OUTREACH MINISTRY

Stewardship “Thank You” Dinner: On Saturday, October 13 at 5:00 p.m. we will host our Annual Stewardship “Thank You” Dinner. This will not be a pot-luck supper. In addition, there will be door prizes and other awards for those who attend. This dinner is for everyone who gives of their time, talent, and treasure to the mission and ministry of Saint Paul – that means everyone.

Food Donations: You are reminded to bring your food items to church each week so that on the last Sunday of the month we can present them to the Lord for blessing and then give them to the food bank. Whenever you go shopping, please add extra non-perishable items to your order for this outreach ministry. Jesus never forgot the last, the lost and the least in his ministry and neither can we.

Adult Cereals (less sugar)
Soups
Spaghetti Sauce

Peanut Butter
Rice

Jelly
Boxed Potatoes

Let's all bring one non-perishable food item each week as committed to in our Mission and Ministry Plan.

Food Bank Hours: Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday – 9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. The Columbia Food Bank is closed on holidays.

Greeting Cards: We are collecting old greeting cards so that adults with autism and other intellectual disabilities can recycle them into new greeting cards. Don't throw away your greeting cards – just bring them to the church and put them in the box on the back pew. This will be an ongoing outreach ministry project. Thank you.

ADMINISTRATION

Parish Office Hours: The Parish Office hours are: Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday – 8:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. The Office is closed on holidays.

Use of St. Paul's Facilities: Please call the Parish Office if you want to reserve the Parish Hall or Church.

Reminder: Please remember that when you use the Parish Hall nothing can be put on the walls or the woodwork. Using scotch tape, duct tape, masking tape, and even some types of painter's tape has the possibility of pulling the paint off the wall or damaging the surface. Items can only be placed on the wooden food bank cabinets or the metal kitchen window and its metal surround. Only masking tape or painter's tape can be used on these surfaces. This applies to both parish members and outside groups that use the hall and is clearly stated in the policy outlining use of the parish hall or the church. Thank you.

PARISH EVENTS

Parish Anniversary Brunch: On Wednesday, September 26 we will celebrate 169 years as the Parish Family of Saint Paul the Apostle. We will celebrate this anniversary with a brunch following our Sunday service on Sunday, September 23. We will not have our Annual Homecoming and Open House celebration this year; however this catered lunch for members will be a celebration of our mission and ministry together.

Attention Readers: St. Paul has a small library located in the Mary Elizabeth Bair Parish Center – Middle Classroom. Feel free to borrow a book (or books). When you have finished reading it, please drop your book into the “Book Return” basket located to the left of the book shelves. We have also included a donation box if you would like to make a contribution. Enjoy!
Thanks to Vickie Stump for all her hard work in organizing and setting up our library.

Quilts for Kids – If you know how to quilt, want to learn how to quilt, know how to sew, don’t know how but want to learn, or just have a relaxing hour or two finding out how, we can cheer up a sick kid with a quilt. If you have quilting supplies you do not need anymore, we may be able to use them too. Call Gayanne Basham through the parish office (717-684-8496) if any questions. The quilting group meets Wednesday afternoons.

OTHER EVENTS

Lancaster Convocation Meeting: The meeting will be held on September 20 (6:30 p.m.) at St. Edward Episcopal Church. All are invited. Convention Delegate and Alternate Delegate are expected to attend.
