

Episcopal Policy Network

This is the site of the Washington Office of the Episcopal Church. It contains information about the Church's position on various matters that come before our lawmakers in Washington, DC. You can become a member (free) and receive e-mails with information. If a member, you can also take action (an electronic letter) to make your views known to your Senators and Representative.

www.episcopalchurch.org/eppn